Hello again!

This edition of The Pink Pages Directory marks the one year anniversary of its introduction to Ottawa. We are pleased and proud to inform you of the Ottawa section's success, and thank you for the enthusiastic welcome we have received in the city. Going forward the section will continue to expand. It will act as a bridge between the two cities, connecting the Ottawa and Toronto LGBTQ communities.

The Pink Pages Directory is officially available as an app for iPhone, iPad, Android Smartphone, Android Tablet, and Blackberry. Now you can easily access information about the best and closest LGBTQ businesses on the go. The app can be downloaded on our website (www.thepinkpagesdirectory.com) and on app stores everywhere.

Our website also features the Pink Blog, which is frequently updated by business experts. Don't miss out on this unique, community-focused opportunity to be well informed about your buying decisions.

You can also take advantage of our FREE Pink Classifieds. Post your own ad and get rid of your comic book collection, rent out your apartment, or sell your old car. Take a look around and you may even find the vintage vinyl record or semi-professional mountain bike you have been searching for.

If you are in the mood for a little light reading, pick up some free copies of our Pink Play Mags. This quarterly publication is written from a gay, lesbian, trans, bi, and queer sensibility. Our mandate is to inform and entertain you, our reader. Articles range from social topics, to travel, decor, life advice, and entertainment. We always aim to publish stories that are timely, engaging, and representative of the varied views of our city's diverse LGBTQ community. You can learn more about Pink Play mags and download free issues at; <http://pinkplaymags.com/>.

This past year INspired Media Inc. and partners worked to establish the Inspire Awards. These annual awards recognize the contributions of outstanding LGBTQ individuals in the Greater Toronto Area and immediate surrounding areas. The phenomenally successful first installment of the awards took place earlier this summer, thanks to contributions from our partners and sponsors. Awards were presented at an inclusive Inspire Awards Gala held in the historic Casa Loma Castle. The winners included; Michael Bach in the category of LGBTQ Person of the Year, Leanne Iskander in the category of LGBTQ Youth of the Year, and Sacred Quest in the category of LGBTQ Business of the Year. Fife House was also recognized for their contributions to the community as a non-profit AIDS/HIV support organization. INspired Media and our partners pledge to continue to honour and advance the Toronto LGBTQ community through the Inspire Awards, we look forward to all the opportunities for growth that the future holds.

Last but in no way least, we would like to thank the many businesses, old and new, who support The Pink Pages Directory this year. As always, you have inspired us with your professionalism, dedication, and commitment to the community.

ONTARIO GAY AND LESBIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

WWW.UGLCC.COM

OPEN MINDS OPEN DOORS

As our official media partner, I am pleased to welcome you to the 22nd edition of The Pink Pages Directory on behalf of the Ontario Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce. The Pink Pages has provided our community with an important service and voice for over 21 years. In today's age of social media and mobility, I sometimes hear rumblings about the relevance of printed directories.

To this, I ask, how does it feel to walk into a business or someone's home and see a copy of the Pink Pages? For communities such as ours – a vibrant minority within the mosaic of our cities – I firmly believe that the Pink Pages is a testament to our existence, the value of our market, and an important part of the business community. Not to mention that the directory extended its reach to the web and mobile applications long ago.

The Ontario Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce has been working for over a decade to foster an environment in which LGBTQ businesses and professionals can thrive through the sharing of knowledge and resources.

Through networking, education, and advocacy, the chamber actively strives to build the LGBTQ business community in Toronto, Ottawa, London, Niagara, Kingston, and most recently, Prince Edward County.

When you see our logo or do business with one of the members listed in our online directory, you have the opportunity to support our community knowing that this business also operates by a code of ethics [see sidebar]. Whether you are a business owner, professional, or supporter, I encourage you to take advantage of our ad within the community directory to attend one of our upcoming Open Minds Open Doors networking events for free to find out more about us. We want to share in the prosperity that we can only create together!

Yours truly,

Ryan Tollofson
President OGLCC

UGLCC Standards of Business Conduct and Ethics

We, members of the Ontario Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, strive to recognize, promote, and improve gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered supportive businesses in Ontario. To that end, members agree to be honour-bound by the following Standards of Business Conduct and Ethics:

An UGLCC Member will:

- Treat customers, clients, and employees alike with honesty, integrity, and fairness.
- Be accessible and accountable to customers or clients and make every reasonable effort to ensure the customer or client's best interest and benefit.
- Not discriminate based on race, colour, creed, religion, national origin, age, disability, marital status, gender, or sexual orientation.
- Be truthful and non-deceptive at all times while advertising and promoting of their business and its products or services.
- Strictly adhere to the laws of their respective city/province of business, to business or professional codes existent for the particular business or profession, and in accordance with generally accepted business practices.
- Support the ideals and goals of this organization, and support the broader gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered community in a constructive and positive manner.

SUBWAY EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Remain Calm And Listen - Follow TTC and Emergency personnel instructions. Help children, seniors, and people with disabilities. Leave large objects such as strollers or packages.

Follow Train Crew Instructions - The train crew will direct you through the cars to one end of the train and act to an exit. Be alert for tripping hazards. Avoid the electrified third rail. Do not step on any rails or track switches. Do not run in the tunnel.

If Evacuation To The End Of The Train Is Not Possible - Evacuate to the side doors where the tunnel lights can be seen. Use the Emergency Opening Device located above the side exit door behind the operator's cab (some cars have this device above every door). Break the plastic cover - Pull the lever (1). Push the doors open (2) - Watch your step.

I have lived in Peterborough my whole life. I got HIV when I was 28. When I told my mother she was angry. She asked, "how could you do this to me?" What would the neighbours think?

Last year I got really sick. She came to see me at the hospital. Now she doesn't care what the neighbours think.

On behalf of Members of Ottawa City Council, it is my distinct pleasure to extend a very warm welcome to all the member businesses and readers of The Pink Pages Directory of the Gay, Lesbian Bisexual and Transgender community.

The Pink Pages Directory is the definitive source of information on businesses serving residents of the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender community, as well as the wider community.

I want also to take this opportunity to offer my congratulations to the member businesses and The Pink Pages Directory contributors, who have dedicated their time, energy, talents and resources to the successful publication of this very useful and informative business listing.

Allow me to convey my best wishes to the member businesses, readers and staff of The Pink Pages Directory for a most happy, healthy and prosperous 2011.

Sincerely,

Au nom des membres du Conseil municipal d'Ottawa, j'ai le grand plaisir de souhaiter la plus cordiale bienvenue à toutes les entreprises membres et à tous les lecteurs The Pink Pages Directory, annuaire téléphonique à l'usage de la communauté gaie, lesbienne, bisexuelle et transgenre.

Ce répertoire constitue la source de renseignements par excellence sur les entreprises qui offrent des services à la communauté gaie, lesbienne, bisexuelle et transgenre ainsi qu'à la collectivité dans son ensemble.

Je profite également de l'occasion pour présenter mes félicitations aux entreprises membres et aux collaborateurs The Pink Pages Directory qui ont consacré leur temps, leur énergie, leurs compétences et leurs ressources à la publication de ce répertoire d'entreprises très utile et très informatif.

Qu'il me soit permis d'adresser aux entreprises membres, aux lecteurs et aux responsables de l'annuaire mes meilleurs vœux de bonheur, de santé et de prospérité pour 2011.

Veuillez agréer mes salutations distinguées.

Jim Watson,
Mayor/Maire

elcome to Ottawa and the Village, the heart of queer life in Canada's capital city. When travelling to Ottawa for business or to enjoy one of our many festivals, such as the Tulip Festival, Canada Day, Bluesfest or Capital Pride, don't forget to visit the Village on Bank Street—we'll welcome you with open arms.

Right in the middle of Centretown, your Village is more visible, and colourful, than ever before. If you've visited the National Capital Region before, you'll notice the changes we've made immediately.

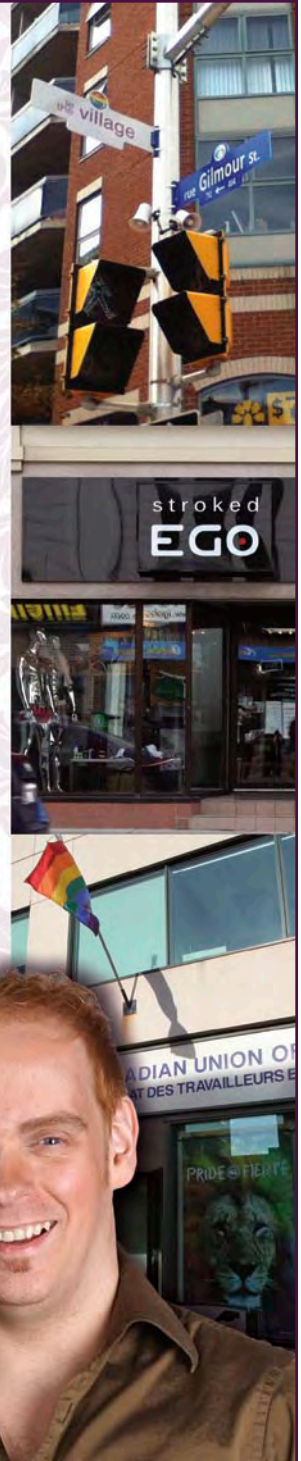

We've increased the number of rainbow flags and decals in the area to well over 30, and have installed two exciting new public art projects: a set of banners with photos and inspirational quotes of Oscar Wilde; and a mural that commemorates the 40th anniversary of the "We Demand" demonstration—the first GLBT civil rights rally in Canada. Finally, we've also re-launched our Web site—www.villageottawa.com—to feature all our events, projects, news, photos, and much more. It's definitely a must-see before your next visit to Ottawa.

We are happy to welcome The Pink Pages Directory in Ottawa as another great resource for those living in or visiting our amazing city. I encourage you to browse through the new Ottawa listings to see many of the exciting shops, services, bars, hotels and restaurants the Village has to offer. There's something for every letter in our alphabet soup to enjoy... see you soon!

Sincerely,

Glenn Crawford
Chair, The Village Committee
